COUNT THE WEEK LOST

THE EASTERN STORM HAS COM-PLETELY STOPPED BUSINESS.

B. G. Dun's Trade Review Quotations Recovers Very Slowly from the Effects

New York, March 17.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say: The paralysis of business here, the stoppage of communications and mails throughout the Eastern States, and the costly conditions under which the scanty business of the past two days has been transacted, make statistical comparisons for the moment of no value. It would not be far from right to reckon an entire week's business as lost throughout the region post of ness as lost throughout the region most af-fected by the unprecedented storm. Under the circumstances, it is of no service as an indication of the future to know that exchanges are small, railroad traffic light, ex-porta below these of the corresponding week last year, and local prices rising because of the temporary scarcity of certain articles. As yet business at the various ex-changes has not been so far resumed that quotations have much value. The stateent, however, of iron furnaces in blast March lst, is of especial significance. The weekly output of anthracite and bitumi-nous iron was 97,500 tons, against 103,501. February lst, and 130,487 November 1st. Clearly, the furnaces which were forced to stop by the strikes in the coal regions have not yetfound it expedient to resume since the strikes terminated. Other, furnaces elsewhere have blown out, and the report eisewhere have blown out, and the report as to charcoal iron, though still incomplete, shows there has been some shrinkage in that branch also. A decrease of 5% per cent, in one month, and 25% per cent, since November in the quantity per cent. since November in the quantity of iron produced, implies a change of large importance in many branches of manu-facture. Prices for the best grades of pig are unchanged, but offers of all other grades of the produced of the produced of the produced of the produced with transportacontinue at concessions. With transportacontinue at concessions. With transporta-tions arrested no indications of value are obtained as to the textile manufacturers or the dry goods trade. Transactions are light, but prices have yielded no further, and the lull in cotton goods, it is stated, "causes no uneasiness." For eight months of the crop year the decrease in wheat has been 10,800,000 bushels, which foreshadows large arrelus to be carried over in luly been 10,500 bushes, which foreshadows a large surplus to be carried over in July. The bureau report of wheat in farmers' hands March I entirely accords with previous estimates of the crop, and prices have yielded 1% c for wheat and 1c for corn. In other markets few changes of importance are noted, though the complaint of duliness becomes more general. The reports received from interior points show a continuance of trade deemed fair for the season at most cities, with slight improve-ment at two or three, but with complaint of unnatisfactory trade at as many. Busi-ness failures for the last seven days, United States 202 Canada 26 as compared with a total of 253 last week and 244 the week

Wanners, March 17.—A pretty well authenticated case of cannibalism is reported from the Peace river district. It of the territories, 200 or 300 miles beyond dmonton. The Peace river country is in-abited by Cree Indians and half breeds. Most of them are pagans and still cling closely to the traditions of the Cree Na-tion. They believe that at times evil spirits enter the bodies of members of the tribe, turning them into Wehtigoes, who will kill and devour their families. It is usual when any member of the tribe shows signs of becoming a Wehtigo for the mem-bers of his or her family to kill the person afflicted. Last fall a half breed named Conteraille, assisted by his son, killed his wife because it was believed she was turn-ing Webige it was believed she was turning Wehtigo.

The woman who is the cause of the present cases of cannibalism turned Webtigo some years ago, and killed and ate one of her children before she was suspected. Having once tasted human blood, she is supposed by the Indians to be enabled with superhuman powers, and they are in such terror of her that no attempts have been made to kill her. At intervals of ed by the Indians to be endowed four or five months her craving for human blood returned, and while in these fits it is reported she assaults the first person she meets. Most of her children have fallen victims, having been slain with an ax.

Girl of Common Birth. LONDON, March 16.—The marriage of Prince Oscar, of Sweden, and Miss Ebba Munck was solemnized at Bournemouth to-day. In consequence of the death of the Emperor of Germany the affair was conducted on a much less elaborate scale than had at first been contemplated. Most of the royal families of Europo were represented. The presents were numerous, and, in the aggregate, of exceeding great vaine.

Of all the romantic marriages that have occurred in royal circles throughout Europe for the last half a century, none have excited as much interest as this. Although of noble birth Miss Munck was poor and an or-phan. Her father, Col. Munck, had left her a long line of uncestors-all galiant soldiers -but very little money. Some years ago, yielding to the pressing advice of her friends, she accepted an offer from a wealthy young officer belonging to a crack cavalry regiment. Everything was prepared for the wedding, the day fixed, and the presents had arrived, when suddenly she broke off the engagement, being convinced that she did not the exclusive affections of her suitor. Miss Munck then retired from court for a short time. Meanwhile Prince Oscar had been on a two years' trip around the world, in the royal Swedish frigate Vonadis, Shortly after his return from this voyage his friends discovered that he was in love.

Prince Oscar succeeded in wringing from her the confession that she loved him in return. Still the brave girl refused to marry him, and it was not until the Prince was in the position to tell her that the Queen had been moved to give her consent that she finally yielded. Still the King's sanction had to be obtained before the marriage could be solemnized, and the will of the K. was not so easily moved as that of the

When we are in trouble we cry for help When we are relieved we often forget to be thankful. But not always. Mr. W. W. Griffin of Trout Creek, St. Clair county, Ala., writer "I had a bad attack of chills and fever. My system was full of malaris. For two years l was scarcely able to work at all. Some time my heart would palpitate for two hours at a time. My legs would get cold to the knees and I fully expected to die. In September 1881, I bought a bottle of Shaker Extract of Roots, or Selgel's Curative Syrue, of your agent, Mr. R. M. King, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt better, and in a short time was able to go to work. May God bless you for the good you have done." Mr. Wm. J. McCann. 99 Randall street, Boston, writes: "Six months ago I began to throw up my food after eating. I thought I was going into consumption. I soon began to have pain in the chest, stomach and sides I got little sleep and woke all tired out. once lost five pounds in four days. $\mathbf{Dr.ALBERT}$

ALBERT MEDICAL INSTITUTE,

Cleveland, O., makes his next visit to Springfield,

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21st, 1888

At the St. James Hotel, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. only.

Special Attention to Nervous, Chronic, Skin and Blood Diseases.

The large force of physicians which the doctor employs at nis Medical Institute enables him to get away occasion-lly, and give those who cannot well visit Cleveland an opportuuity to consult him. These visits are necessarily brief, and by no means so frequent as might be wished. But in those he has m de he has been able, by reason of his vast experience and wonderful intuitive powers, to do a great amount

The Doctor Makes this Business Proposition

To all who are suffering from obscure or complicated diseases, who, from reasons of delicacy do not wish to consult home physicians, or who have been kept off and on, lying in misery, by some practitioner who has not had the honesty to say, "I cannot cure you."

If you will visit him, he will Charge you Nothing for an Examination, and he will tell you whether or not be can cure you, and if he can, he will make a contract to do so. This is business. It is different from the ordinary, non-committal, wise-and-silent method, but it is successful, and, with the doctor's great power of intuition, it has built up the Albert Medi-

One Word About this Power

It is the same as that within a man which makes him a Poet, Actor, or a Journalist, because

HE WAS BORN TO DO THAT VERY THING.

And nothing else. His intuitive preception enables Dr. Albert to diagnose correctly—the most important point in practice—and then to apply the vast knowledge which he has obtained by study and by the greatest range of experience enjoyed by any physician in this country. Call on the doctor. You will like him. You will like his pleasant but business like way, and above all, if you suffer from any obscure or complicated disease, you will like to be cured.

AND YOU PROBABLY CAN BE!

the Senate Vesterday. Washington, March 16.—A bill has been introduced in the Senate by Mr. Butler to admit Utah to Statehood. It provides for a constitutional convention, delegates to which shall be chosen at the election held regularly in August next. The convention wines. Solido 66. The convention fering with a Chronic Disease Should Consult Dr. Albert.

He is a Physician whose merit is acknowledged at home.

H as proved his kill by success.

H - has a wonder ut power of diagnosis. His experience in obscure and difficult cases has been wider than that of any other physician you can reach. He is honest, and will tell you whether or not he can care you.

He has a wonderful power of inspiring hope and confidenc in those whose cases he undertakes.

He is business like and prompt. He has had many years' experience in private and Hospital

DR. ALBERT Does not profess to cure everything. Bear this in mind and contrast it with the bitant mendacity of the school of loud-mouthed charlatans, who, in their lust for money, claim powers which are more than human, and if true would approach the divine. The men powers which are more than human, and if true would approach the divine. The men who make these claims are not reliable. Dr. Albert will examine your case, and will then frankly tell you whether or not it is curable. If it is, he will give you the benefit of his skill and knowledge; if it is not, he will frankly tell you so. Do not imagine that because your former physicians have given up your case, or failed to cure you, that you

The Age of Miracles is Past,

We are told: but Science has penetrated so far into the hidden mysteries of existence that she produces results which almost rival the supernatural, and many diseases have yielded to the skillful treatment of Dr. Albert, which the whole medical fraternity had pronounced incurable, he alone maintaining the contrary.

Dr. Albert has completely restored thousands who had at first considered themselves incurable, because their Physicians could not do anything for them, but now they are loud in their graise of Dr. Albert, who rescued them from
